

Raise Your Glass (RYG) is a Los Angeles-based musical production show that was created to bring the excitement and music of P!nk to the repertoire of talent agencies, showroom directors, nightclub owners and corporate event planners who are seeking a top-level act to offer their client's event entertainment needs.

RYG's re-creation of one of the world's current best-selling pop/rock artist's live concert experience is a perfect fit and a guaranteed crowd-pleaser for any event.

RYG is able to provide a custom-tailored show to meet the needs of any venue or booking director. The show can fit anywhere from a 30 minute to a two-hour performance as well as a multi-set requirement. RYG can also provide an adult-oriented show as well as a "family friendly" version where lyrics and audience banter is free of explicit and suggestive language.
